

Hi! my name is Charlie. I am five years old.

My favourite game is 'pass the ball' and my favourite animal is a big dog called Bonnie who lives in my house.

Even though I'm the same as every other little boy and girl, my legs are just not as strong as everyone else's.

To help me, I use a special kind of chair called a wheelchair. It's exactly like a chair you sit on at the dinner table except it has wheels like a racing car, so they call it a wheelchair.
